

Mail and Courier.

MONDAY, AUGUST 14, 1882.

BY TELEGRAPH.

MAINE NEWS.

WALDO REPUBLICANS.

DELFEST, Aug. 12. The Waldo County Republican Convention was held here today. Joseph R. Mearns, of Morrill, and Alfred E. Nickerson, of Swallow, were nominated for Senators, Tustion Wadlin, of Northport, Clerk of Courts; C. C. Moore, of Northport, Sheriff; James F. Bates, of Belfast, Register of Deeds; Ruel W. Rogers, of Belfast, County Attorney; Sherburne Sleeper, of Belfast, Treasurer; J. H. Kilham, of Prospect, and Samuel Kingsbury, of Waldo, Commissioners. Senator Frye addressed the convention this afternoon.

Death of Mrs. Briggs.

Boston, Aug. 12. The many friends of Dr. Howard H. Briggs, both in this State and Maine, will be pained to learn of his death. Friday night, after a sudden attack of cholera morbus, Dr. Briggs, aged 35 years, died at his home in Hampden, Maine, after the passage of 10 days in the hospital and after having during the war, acted as First Lieutenant in the revenue service.

St. John, Aug. 13.

The three masted schooner "St. John," Boston for St. John, in ballast, is ashore at Mill Street wharf. All hands were saved. It is feared the vessel will become a total wreck, as the rock is very much exposed.

The Commencement.

On Orchard Beach, Aug. 13. Each service at Ocean Park has largely attended to day. A devotion meeting at 9:30 a. m., led by Rev. J. B. Jordan was full of interest. A gospel service was held at 10:30, followed by an address by Alfred Anthony, of Rhode Island. At 2 p. m. an address, "Model Sunday School," by G. Andrews, of Rhode Island. Service at 7 p. m. and a gospel service at 7:30 p. m.

Stampede of Guests.

Typhoid Fever at a Long Branch Hotel.

LONG BRANCH, Aug. 13. The guests of Hotel Bellevue, just above Seabright, are being troubled by typhoid fever. Several cases of typhoid fever among their number (Capt. James H. Correy, proprietor of the hotel) passed the following notice in the office yesterday afternoon: "I will close this hotel Monday, sure." Signed J. H. Correy.

Patients are N. W. Andrews, brother-in-law of W. Field, Jr., and Mrs. Albert Levy, relative of Seligman. Correy is very anxious that the sick people be removed from the hotel. He says that if he cannot get the patients removed, he will close the hotel. He says that the patients are very sick and that he cannot keep them in the hotel. He says that the patients are very sick and that he cannot keep them in the hotel. He says that the patients are very sick and that he cannot keep them in the hotel.

Two Families.

Mr. Field said that Dr. Henry, a physician attached to the hotel, and Mrs. Field, and E. J. Janeway, all of New York, had decided, after a long consultation, that Mr. Field and Mr. Andrews were in the state to be removed at present, and as soon as they would be able to stand removal they would be taken to the hospital. The physicians said they could not be removed from the hotel until they were well enough to travel. They said that the patients are very sick and that they cannot keep them in the hotel. They said that the patients are very sick and that they cannot keep them in the hotel.

FROM WASHINGTON.

General News.

Gold Certificate. Washington, Aug. 12. Many applications are received at the Treasury for the new gold certificates. The Treasury has decided to issue them in exchange for gold coin. It is stated that the certificates will be issued in exchange for gold coin. It is stated that the certificates will be issued in exchange for gold coin.

De Groot for Investigation.

Owing to charges made in Washington and Baltimore newspapers, Commander Kellogg of the Talapoosa demands official investigation. The Secretary of the Navy will not order a court of inquiry, however, as he considers there is no ground for it.

Cattle Quarantine.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury French today addressed the Collectors at New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston and Portland calling attention to the act of Congress making provision for the establishment of cattle quarantine stations, and stating that the Department would provide proper shelter for imported cattle at these points as soon as convenient and that the collectors were to consider the best way of doing it and also where such quarantine should be established.

Meany's Arrest.

Acting Secretary of State Davis has been in communication with Minister Lewis in London in reference to the case of Stephen J. Meany, of New York, arrested at Lonsdale, Ireland, for alleged violation of the Representative Secrecy Act. The telegraphed disavowal and to investigate and report to the department. An answer was received from Mr. Lewis that the case of the Foreign Office has no official information on the subject, but he understood that Meany had been expelled. Secretary Davis thereupon telegraphed Mr. Lewis to get exact information as to whether Meany is free or not.

Yellow Fever.

LAREDO, TEX., Aug. 13. During the twenty-four hours ending at 8 p. m. August 12th, Brownsville reports twenty-five cases of yellow fever, one death, and Matamoros reports twenty-five new cases and eight deaths.

A Bad Effect Anticipated.

BROWNVILLE, TEX., Aug. 13. Twenty-two new cases of yellow fever are reported from Matamoros. The physicians are apprehensive of a bad effect from the change in the weather, which is now showing a hot sun. At Matamoros, Mexico, there are reported for the week ended at 8 a. m. to-day fifty deaths from the fever.

THE EGYPTIAN QUESTION.

A SLIGHT SKIRMISH.

Narrow Escape of Lord Beresford

ARABI THREATENS SUICIDE.
LONDON, Aug. 12. The Times, in a leading article, says: "Then the army of Arabi Pasha has been depicted and its leaders brought to account for their misdeeds, we shall have to make sure that difficulty of Egypt is not a new form of Egypt will be in our hands. It will not be open to us to retire from Egypt and leave events to take their own course. This is the resolve of the British Government, and when it becomes necessary to seek the sanction of the other powers for a refusal of the Egyptian Government to be worked in a sense very different from that with which we have been familiar."

England and Turkey.

LONDON, Aug. 12. A despatch from Constantinople says: Sir Alfred Sackville, Secretary of the British Legation, today visited the Porte and Palace for the purpose of arranging the final details of the military convention, the conference having left both matters to be arranged between England and Turkey. The Sultan has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

An International Conference.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 12. The Minister of War, Mr. Talaat, today announced the terms of the proclamation against Arabi Pasha. Lord Dufferin telegraphed to London the Lord's modification of the military convention and the Egyptian Government's reply accepting them. Dervish Pasha is mentioned as the Turkish member of the future conference, which will be held in Constantinople. The conference will be held in Constantinople.

A Turkish.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 13. Sunday afternoon the enemy's main defenses appeared to be finished. It is reported that Arabi Pasha is sending a message to the British Government, asking for the return of the Egyptian Government. The British Government has replied that it will consider the matter. The British Government has replied that it will consider the matter.

More Force.

LONDON, Aug. 13. The Press Association is informed that the army of occupation in Egypt will be reinforced by a third division of the first army corps. A number of the regiments have received orders to move to Egypt. The army of occupation in Egypt will be reinforced by a third division of the first army corps.

Not Yet Arranged.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 13. The Anglo-Turkish military convention has not yet been signed. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

Narrow Escape.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 13. Lord Charles Beresford with a patrol party near Port Said, was narrowly escaped by a boat full of Bedouins. The sailors on shore were all sent back to the ships Sunday. The Bedouin train has been put out of commission.

The Canal Threatened.

SUEZ, Aug. 12. The rebels in great force have taken up a position threatening the canal. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

A MORRIS EXPLOSION.

Many Children Killed.
LONDON, Aug. 13. By the accidental explosion of a barrel of gunpowder in a room at the school of the children of the British Legation, many children were killed. A large number of bodies have been recovered from the ruins. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

A MOST BRUTAL MURDER.

Three Persons Killed.
EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 13. Alex. White, a German saloon keeper, his wife and little son, seven years old, were found murdered in their house today. The murderer was a man named John A. Baker, who was arrested by the police. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

RECORDS BURNED.

A Court House Destroyed.
MOOREHEAD, Mo., Aug. 13. The Court House of Randolph County at Haysville, Mo., was burned today. The records of the court were destroyed. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

STEAMBOAT COLLISION.

None of the Passengers Injured.
NEW YORK, Aug. 13. While the steamship "Sirius" was on her way to New York, she collided with the tugboat "Sirius" near the Battery. The tugboat was damaged, but none of the passengers were injured. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE COOLEST.

Most Attractive Photograph Rooms in the City.
NEW YORK, Aug. 13. The most attractive photograph rooms in the city are those of the "Photo-graph" company. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE COOLEST.

Most Attractive Photograph Rooms in the City.
NEW YORK, Aug. 13. The most attractive photograph rooms in the city are those of the "Photo-graph" company. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE COOLEST.

Most Attractive Photograph Rooms in the City.
NEW YORK, Aug. 13. The most attractive photograph rooms in the city are those of the "Photo-graph" company. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE COOLEST.

Most Attractive Photograph Rooms in the City.
NEW YORK, Aug. 13. The most attractive photograph rooms in the city are those of the "Photo-graph" company. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE COOLEST.

Most Attractive Photograph Rooms in the City.
NEW YORK, Aug. 13. The most attractive photograph rooms in the city are those of the "Photo-graph" company. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. The weather is generally clear and warm. The British Government has decided to accept the convention, and the proclamation has been made declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and his death shall be sought on the ground that in resisting Arabi Pasha contrary to the proclamation of the Sultan, he has committed a crime. The Sultan has also ordered that the Egyptian Government should accept the convention.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Chief Engineer Maddocks is down river enjoying a vacation.

MISS SARA PARKER, the Boston contralto, is visiting in this city.
A large fire was raging during yesterday afternoon in the woods to the east of Brewer.

Hon. John L. Stevens, U. S. Minister to Sweden, has left Augusta on his return to Stockholm.

Mr. S. H. Cone, agent of the Kate Chase Company, was at the Bangor Hotel on Saturday.
The third steam mill drive about ten miles is now between Orono and the Bangor Hotel.

The English bark John L. Boyd has arrived in port consigned to Henry Lord, to be loaded for Scotland.

The Christian Mirror states the age of 60 years on the 24th instant. It is ably edited by Rev. Dr. Warren.
Mr. John L. Stoddard is at his summer residence in Gilmanton, N. H., preparing for his lecture series which opens in October.

It is said that under the new management, passengers will be brought to this city from Passaic via without change of cars.

Miss E. H. Ober, the manager of the celebrated Boston Ideal Company, will visit this week her old home in Hancock County.
A young son of officer Colson was run over Saturday on Harlow street by a hay rack but no serious injuries were received.

Miss Georgia Cayvan has been specially engaged to create the gypsy part of Laura Lee's "Romany Rye" at Booth's Theatre, New York.
Wallace Ross and John A. Kennedy, together with several members of the Union Reform Association, have gone to Lake Maranacook for a week.

The Reform Club goes on an excursion to Isleboro next Thursday on the steamer Queen City. It is intended to make the sail a "hang up" one in all particulars.
Bishop Neely has made a proposition to the trustees of the academy at Presque Isle, looking to the establishment of an Episcopal Classical School in that town.

Patents have been issued to Ephraim K. Dean, of Bangor, for an automatic device for not plants, to George N. Nutter, of Orono, for furrow opening, and to Allen J. & E. G. Sawyer, of Oldtown, for their combined.

On Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock Philipa Batcher's horse ran away and at the corner of French and Hancock streets the carriage was overturned and Mr. Batcher was thrown out, sustaining some injuries.

A Bangor gentleman who has recently visited Thompson's camp in respect to the Maine question, has returned in high terms of the assistance which characterizes every part of that institution under the efficient management of Warden Dean.

Mr. Harry W. French during last week made a second trip from Crawford to the summit of Mt. Washington over the big bridge path. Mr. French will deliver during September a course of ten illustrated lectures in Tremont Temple, Boston, on scenes and narratives from his travels in foreign countries.

THE PENOBSCOT BOOM. It is expected the West Branch drive is now in the Penobscot boom. Menus, Lust and Webster have a very large crew now busily engaged in rafting. There are now about eighty million feet of logs in the boom, and it is a grand sight to behold the vast sea of logs floating in the river. The boom will be open for some time to the south of great utility.

During a dense fog last week, the schooner "Felix N. Brown" of Gloucester, Ky., was wrecked on the shore of the Penobscot River, and the crew were rescued. The schooner was carrying a large cargo of lumber and was bound for Bangor. The crew were rescued by the Bangor Life Guard.

THE PENOBSCOT BOOM. It is expected the West Branch drive is now in the Penobscot boom. Menus, Lust and Webster have a very large crew now busily engaged in rafting. There are now about eighty million feet of logs in the boom, and it is a grand sight to behold the vast sea of logs floating in the river. The boom will be open for some time to the south of great utility.

During a dense fog last week, the schooner "Felix N. Brown" of Gloucester, Ky., was wrecked on the shore of the Penobscot River, and the crew were rescued. The schooner was carrying a large cargo of lumber and was bound for Bangor. The crew were rescued by the Bangor Life Guard.

THE PENOBSCOT BOOM. It is expected the West Branch drive is now in the Penobscot boom. Menus, Lust and Webster have a very large crew now busily engaged in rafting. There are now about eighty million feet of logs in the boom, and it is a grand sight to behold the vast sea of logs floating in the river. The boom will be open for some time to the south of great utility.

During a dense fog last week, the schooner "Felix N. Brown" of Gloucester, Ky., was wrecked on the shore of the Penobscot River, and the crew were rescued. The schooner was carrying a large cargo of lumber and was bound for Bangor. The crew were rescued by the Bangor Life Guard.

THE PENOBSCOT BOOM. It is expected the West Branch drive is now in the Penobscot boom. Menus, Lust and Webster have a very large crew now busily engaged in rafting. There are now about eighty million feet of logs in the boom, and it is a grand sight to behold the vast sea of logs floating in the river. The boom will be open for some time to the south of great utility.

During a dense fog last week, the schooner "Felix N. Brown" of Gloucester, Ky., was wrecked on the shore of the Penobscot River, and the crew were rescued. The schooner was carrying a large cargo of lumber and was bound for Bangor. The crew were rescued by the Bangor Life Guard.

THE PENOBSCOT BOOM. It is expected the West Branch drive is now in the Penobscot boom. Menus, Lust and Webster have a very large crew now busily engaged in rafting. There are now about eighty million feet of logs in the boom, and it is a grand sight to behold the vast sea of logs floating in the river. The boom will be open for some time to the south of great utility.

During a dense fog last week, the schooner "Felix N. Brown" of Gloucester, Ky., was wrecked on the shore of the Penobscot River, and the crew were rescued. The schooner was carrying a large cargo of lumber and was bound for Bangor. The crew were rescued by the Bangor Life Guard.

THE PENOBSCOT BOOM. It is expected the West Branch drive is now in the Penobscot boom. Menus, Lust and Webster have a very large crew now busily engaged in rafting. There are now about eighty million feet of logs in the boom, and it is a grand sight to behold the vast sea of logs floating in the river. The boom will be open for some time to the south of great utility.

During a dense fog last week, the schooner "Felix N. Brown" of Gloucester, Ky., was wrecked on the shore of the Penobscot River, and the crew were rescued. The schooner was carrying a large cargo of lumber and was bound for Bangor. The crew were rescued by the Bangor Life Guard.

THE PENOBSCOT BOOM. It is expected the West Branch drive is now in the Penobscot boom. Menus, Lust and Webster have a very large crew now busily engaged in rafting. There are now about eighty million feet of logs in the boom, and it is a grand sight to behold the vast sea of logs floating in the river. The boom will be open for some time to the south of great utility.

During a dense fog last week, the schooner "Felix N. Brown" of Gloucester, Ky., was wrecked on the shore of the Penobscot River, and the crew were rescued. The schooner was carrying a large cargo of lumber and was bound for Bangor. The crew were rescued by the Bangor Life Guard.

THE PENOBSCOT BOOM. It is expected the West Branch drive is now in the Penobscot boom. Menus, Lust and Webster have a very large crew now busily engaged in rafting. There are now about eighty million feet of logs in the boom, and it is a grand sight to behold the vast sea of logs floating in the river. The boom will be open for some time to the south of great utility.

During a dense fog last week, the schooner "Felix N. Brown" of Gloucester, Ky., was wrecked on the shore of the Penobscot River, and the crew were rescued. The schooner was carrying a large cargo of lumber and was bound for Bangor. The crew were rescued by the Bangor Life Guard.

THE PENOBSCOT BOOM. It is expected the West Branch drive is now in the Penobscot boom. Menus, Lust and Webster have a very large crew now busily engaged in rafting. There are now about eighty million feet of logs in the boom, and it is a grand sight to behold the vast sea of logs floating in the river. The boom will be open for some time to the south of great utility.

During a dense fog last week, the schooner "Felix N. Brown" of Gloucester, Ky., was wrecked on the shore of the Penobscot River, and the crew were rescued. The schooner was carrying a large cargo of lumber and was bound for Bangor. The crew were rescued by the Bangor Life Guard.

THE PENOBSCOT BOOM. It is expected the West Branch drive is now in the Penobscot boom. Menus, Lust and Webster have a very large crew now busily engaged in rafting. There are now about eighty million feet of logs in the boom, and it is a grand sight to behold the vast sea of logs floating in the river. The boom will be open for some time to the south of great utility.

LOCAL MATTERS.

